Appendix 1

Additional Provisions Applicable to Processing of Personal Information of EEA Residents

For individuals residing in the EEA, this Appendix outlines certain additional information that KPHS is obligated to provide to you, as well as certain rights you have with respect to the processing of your personal information, based on the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This Appendix will control to the extent it conflicts with any provision in the main body of this Policy.

1. Processing of Personal Information

The purposes, the categories and the sources of personal information that we handle, and the provision of the customer's personal information to third parties are set out in articles 1 through 4 of the Policy.

2. Legal Basis

We process customer's personal information based on the customer's consent in principle. The processing of personal information in the absence of the customer's consent shall be based on the necessity for the performance of the contract with the customer, the necessity to take steps at the request of the customer prior to entering into a contract, the necessity for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us or a third party, or the necessity for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject. The legitimate interests pursued by us or a third party include an increase in operating income from marketing and improvement of services, and improvement of the convenience, security, etc. of our website.

3. Transfer of Personal Information to a Third Country.

For the purposes of fulfilling the contract with the customer, or for taking procedures according to the customer's request prior to entering into a contract, personal information acquired outside Japan will be transferred to Japan. Although Japan has yet to receive an adequacy decision on protection of personal information from the European Commission, we handle the customer's personal information with appropriate security and confidentiality measures.

4. Retention Period

We retain personal information for the period necessary to accomplish its purpose of processing. Following the retention period, we eliminate or anonymize such personal information in a secure way within a reasonable period of time.

5. Customer's Rights

You have the following rights with respect to us based on laws and regulations. A customer may exercise these rights by contacting the Inquiry Desk for Personal Information stated in article 11 of the Policy. In the event that you exercise these rights, we will respond in good faith, barring statutory exceptions, after confirming that the requesting person is the person in question.

① The right of access

The right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal information concerning you is being processed, and where that is the case, access to the personal information and the accompanying information

② The right to rectification

The right to obtain the rectification of inaccurate personal information concerning you

③ The right to erasure

The right to obtain the erasure of personal information concerning you in certain cases

④ The right to restriction of processing

The right to obtain restriction of processing in certain cases

⑤ The right to object to processing

The right to object the processing of personal information based on the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us or third parties.

⑥ The right to data portability

The right to receive the personal information concerning you, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from us.

6. Withdrawal of Consent

You can withdraw consent on the processing of your personal information at any time. Withdrawing consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing based on consent before the withdrawal. You can withdraw consent by contacting the Inquiry Desk for Personal Information stated in article 11 of the Policy.

7. Lodging a Complaint with an Authority

Customers have the right to lodge a complaint on the processing of their personal information with the protection authority having jurisdiction over their residence.

8. Personal Information Necessary for Accommodations

We require the following information to provide accommodation services to our customers. In particular, the laws of Japan require that we keep the information on the hotel register for three years. Should you be unable to provide the required information, we may not be able to provide you with accommodation services.
